A BREATH OF FRESH AIR.

Just ate something and you don't have time to stop to brush your teeth before an important meeting? No problem. At a tradeshow and you need a quick refresh? No problem. Just relax and use a few sprays of our Ice Drops® breath sprays. We have all felt like we need a refresh before important events. In Fact, 85% of people believe that bad breath is the most important thing to avoid when meeting someone new. But when you have breath sprays to cover that fearful smell, you know that you can tackle anything. Don't leave your customers with a bad taste in their mouth, let Ice Drops® help you promote fresh breath & fresh ideas.
